Literacy Task

We have been reading 'The Watertower' in Literacy. This is a Mystery and Suspense story.

Your task is to write a short story with a setting of your choice where there is a strange object that creates mystery. Make sure you are using:

- Expanded noun phrases: carefully chosen adjectives that describe the noun clearly (iron legs rusted; egg-shaped)
- Precise verbs: leaking, casting
- Personification: the word 'stood' makes us think of the water tower as a giant or monster
- Show don't tell: 'its iron legs rusted' - this shows that the water tower is old. 'Its egg-shaped tank warped and leaking' - this shows that the water tower is

Science Task

Design a poster that compares the lifecycles of a:

- Human
- Kangaroo
- Cicada
